Finding Words

You can search for particular words in the drug monographs in two ways: (1) by typing words at the search words display, or (2) by highlighting a word in a monograph.

By Typing Words

You can type up to three words at the search words display. If you type more than one, Text Search finds every monograph in which your words occur, adjacent or apart, within the same topic. Text Search automatically searches for inflections of your word(s).

In this example, we'll search for `chronic anemia`.

1. If you're not at the search words display, press MENU and select Text Search.
2. Type your search word(s) with a space between each word.

Type in search words, then press ENTER.

`chronic anemia`

For other options, press MENU.

To move the cursor, press  or .

To erase letters, press BACK.

3. Press ENTER to see the Brands list.

4. To highlight another brand, press ↓ or DN.
Or type its letters.

5. Press ENTER to see the first occurrence of the search word(s).

6. Press ○ plus DN to see the next occurrence.

If the words occur in the next monograph, the drug name appears at the bottom of the screen.

7. To see another monograph, press LIST and select it from the Brands list.

8. When you're done, press CLEAR.

Expanding a Text Search

If you don't see the drug that you want after a Text Search, you can expand its Brands list by pressing MORE .

For example, if you search for cardiac arrhythmia, you'll see a list of 129 brand name drugs. Press MORE , and the list expands to 142 drugs. Press MORE two more times, and you see 153.

You may be able to expand a Brands list up to three times. To narrow an expanded list, press ESC plus MORE . Expanded Text Searches include more drugs because they find search words that are farther apart within monograph topics. Drug List searches can't be expanded.

Short Words and Misspellings

You can't search for short words such as articles and prepositions because they occur so often.

If you misspell a search word, highlight a word on the corrections list and press ENTER twice.

By Highlighting a Word

You can also search for a word by highlighting it in the text of a monograph. In this example, we'll search for hypoalbuminemia in the monograph for Albumin 25% under the Warnings topic.

1. At a monograph, press ENTER to start highlighting the text.

To turn off the highlight, press BACK.

2. Press the arrow keys to highlight the word that you want to search for.

3. Press ENTER twice to search for it.
4. Select a drug from the Brands list.

Finding Equivalents

Once at a monograph, you can find equivalent brands of any of the drugs generic components, or any combination of those components, by selecting them from the Equiv menu.

In this example, we'll find equivalents containing acetaminophen and hydrocodone bitartrate from the monograph for Anexia 5/500.

1. At a monograph, press MENU.

2. Press ↵ to highlight the Equiv menu.

If a generic is pre-checked, as above, it was the drug that you entered at the drug search display.

3. To check other generics, press ↓ or ↑ and then press ENTER.

You can uncheck generics in the same way.

4. Press ↑ to highlight Start Search.

5. Press ENTER to see the equivalent brands.

Using Bookmarks

For customized reference, you can place bookmarks in monographs and then quickly find them from your Bookmarks menu.

Placing Bookmarks

You can place up to 16 bookmarks. Bookmarks are always placed at the top line of the current display.

1. At a monograph, press LIST.
2. Press ⇨ to highlight the Bookmarks menu.

If you have no bookmarks, Add is highlighted.

If you have bookmarks, View is highlighted.

The number of brands in the Brands list depends on your search.

3. Highlight Add.
4. Press ENTER to place the bookmark.

Finding and Deleting Bookmarks

You can find and delete bookmarks at any time.

1. Press LIST.
2. Press ↵ to highlight Bookmarks.
3. Highlight View or Delete.
4. Press ENTER.

This is a sample Bookmarks menu.

5. Press ↓ to highlight a bookmark.
6. Press ENTER.

If you highlighted View in Step 3, you go to the drug monograph where the bookmark is placed.

If you highlighted Delete, the bookmark is deleted and you return to the previous display.

SPECifying Full Bookmarks

When a drug in your Bookmarks menu is followed by ellipses, highlight the drug and press SPEC to its full name and its placement.

The bookmark's placement in a monograph is shown by a topic abbreviation and line number (the number of lines from the top of the monograph).

Saving Bookmarks

Bookmarks are automatically saved between sessions unless:

- you remove Pocket PDR™ from its book slot,
- or you disconnect the batteries for more than two minutes.
